

Curriculum vitae

Marton Saghi, MD

E-mail: saghimarci@gmail.com

Qualifications:

2020 – Board certified pathologist – National Examination Board, Hungary
2013 - General Medicine – Semmelweis University, Budapest

Work experience:

2020 – Pathologist. Department of Pathology, Forensic and Insurance Medicine, Semmelweis University
2016-2020: Pathology residency years, Semmelweis University
2013-2016: Cardiac surgery residency, Heart and Vascular Center – Budapest, Semmelweis University

Proficiencies:

Paediatric and adult cardiac pathology, including: transplant, sudden death, post-operative cases
Autopsy pathology focusing on cardiac diseases (congenital, paediatric and adult)
General surgical pathology
Medical education: instructor on gradual, and post-gradual courses

Previous medical activities:

2010-2012: Semmelweis University 2nd Dept. Of Pathology
Fine needle aspiration cytology – diagnostics in cytopathology focused on: Fine needle aspiration cytology of the pancreas

2010-2013: Semmelweis University, Heart and Vascular Center – Dept. of Cardiac Surgery 2nd and 1st assistant in cardiac operations including: mechanical circulatory support and heart transplantations

2010-2013: Teacher's assistant at Semmelweis University 2nd Dept. of Pathology

Languages:

English - level: advanced French - level: basic
Hungarian – native language